

Central Michigan Regional Rural Health Network Committee Responsibilities

Administrative/Rules

- Update, maintain, and enforce the Central Michigan Regional Rural Health Network's operating agreement
- Collaborate with other subcommittees as necessary

Communication/Outreach

- Utilize social media and the community calendar to promote the Central Michigan Regional Rural Health Network and the work of its subcommittees
- Identify and implement mechanisms to enhance member engagement and participation (strategic plan page 16)
- Collaborate with other subcommittees as necessary

Finance/Sustainability

- Identify mechanisms to acquire resources to maintain network infrastructure (finance committee opportunity tracker)
- Identify sources of funding for projects to improve population health in the network's priority areas (finance committee opportunity tracker)
- Obtain additional resources for grant development (strategic plan page 18)
- Collaborate with other subcommittees as necessary

Legislative

- Advocate for public health legislation that positively impacts Arenac, Clare, Gladwin, Isabella, Osceola, and Roscommon counties
- Educate network members about public health legislation at the local, state, and national levels

Working collectively to improve the health of and promote wellness among the community members in the central Michigan region.

Visit Our Website

- Conduct an annual Legislative Day with national, state, and local legislators and identify legislative liaisons to maintain regular communications with legislators (strategic plan page 17)
- Collaborate with other subcommittees as necessary

Membership

- Identify and communicate with potential new network members
- Orient and mentor new network members and articulate subcommittee involvement options
- Collaborate with other subcommittees as necessary

Operational/Technical

- Execute planning grant work plans
- Assist finance and sustainability committee with grant writing
- Collaborate with other subcommittees as necessary

Working collectively to improve the health of and promote wellness among the community members in the central Michigan region.

Visit Our Website